THEME - "CHANGING DIMENSIONS OF CRIMINAL LAW"

Crime is an unlawful act committed by a person against another person or society. Crime is considered as an act against state. In today's ever changing world we are evolving out of our historic laws which no longer serves our purpose, for ex – striking down adultery laws and homosexual laws. Further we need efficient laws to deal with rising problems such as of Rape, murder etc, as current laws are not deterrent to the commission of such crimes as we can observe from ever increasing cases of crime.These problems and issues are there for a long time and require special attention to deal with. We have come so far and so far to go ahead

Call for Chapters

We are issuing a call for chapters to receive high quality research papers from the future stakeholders such as students, researchers, academicians, professionals etc. The research paper need to address the main issues and point out various different kind of views and arguments. Some suggestions would also be appreciated if put forth by the authors in order for improvement in the present situation. Every paper should be accompanied by an abstract of 200 to 300 words mentioning the:

- Title of the Paper.
- Name of the Author and Co-Author.
- E-mail Address.
- Postal Address
- Contact Number of the Author/Co-Author.

It would be appreciated if the abstract would mention the novelty of the idea which the author wishes to put forth.
