About the Book

We invite submissions that address Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) topics from international and comparative perspectives or topics that deal with the intersection between two different fields of perspectives. The Aftermath of Covid-19 has already had a dramatic impact on the society as a whole and its consequences and impact will be felt for a significant period of time. This book will explore the evolution of ADR, reflecting on ADR as it was before the pandemic, as it is now and what it will become. Furthermore, this book will focus on how such evolution presents a pathway towards the future of ADR and international cooperation within the ADR community.

Call for Chapters

We are issuing a call for chapters. We look forward to receive high quality research papers from existing and the future stakeholders in the ADR community including students, researchers, academics, professionals etc. Each chapter should focus on a novel topic and must address the main issues raised by the author(s) chosen topic, taking into account a range of different views and arguments.

Each Chapter should be 200 to 300 words and include the:

- Title of the Proposed Chapter.
- Name of the Author/Co-Author.
- Author/Co-Author's E-mail Address.
- Contact Number of the Author/Co-Author.

The abstract must explain the novelty of the proposed topic to be addressed in a chapter.
